THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRESUPREME COURT*O R D E R*JD-2020-0001, In the Matter of Julie A. Introcaso

On February 23, 2021, the Judicial Conduct Committee (JCC) filed a summary report of its proceedings, findings, and recommendations in JC-19-050-C and JC-20-010-C, In re: Julie Introcaso. On February 26, 2021, the JCC filed a certified copy of the record of its proceedings.

According to the JCC's summary report, former judge Julie A. Introcaso (Introcaso), who resigned from office on February 16, 2021, did not contest that she violated a number of provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct, as alleged in the JCC's Statement of Formal Charges. The JCC's record includes a copy of the Stipulation and Agreement signed by Introcaso in which she did not contest the alleged violations of the Code provisions; she acknowledged that she understood that the JCC would enter findings that she had violated those provisions; and she waived her right to a de novo hearing on the charges. Introcaso also acknowledged that she is responsible for reimbursing the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) for attorney's fees and expenses that the JCC incurred to investigate and prosecute the matter.

The JCC reviewed the Stipulation and Agreement, and entered findings that Introcaso violated the following provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct:

Canon 1, Rule 1.1, which provides: "A judge shall comply with the law, including the Code of Judicial Conduct."

Canon 1, Rule 1.2, which provides: "A judge shall act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety."

Canon 2, Rule 2.5(A), which provides: "A judge shall perform judicial and administrative duties, competently and diligently."

Canon 2, Rule 2.5(B), which provides: "A judge shall cooperate with other judges and court officials in the administration of court business."

Canon 2, Rule 2.11, which provides in part: "A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned."

Canon 2, Rule 2.16(A), which provides: "A judge shall cooperate and be candid and honest with judicial and lawyer disciplinary agencies."

In the summary report of its findings, the JCC noted that Introcaso had resigned from office before the report was submitted. The summary report stated that because Introcaso had taken this action, the JCC made no additional recommendations for sanctions.

In accordance with Rule 40(12) and (13), when the JCC determines that a judge has violated the Code of Judicial Conduct and determines that the violations warrant formal disciplinary action by this court, the judge may request a de novo hearing, after which the court will schedule briefing and oral argument. In this case, Introcaso has waived her right to a de novo hearing, and she notified the court, through her counsel, that she does not seek the opportunity to file a brief or present oral argument.

The court determines that the JCC's findings as to the violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct are supported by the JCC's record. See Rule 40(13). In light of Introcaso's resignation as a judge, the court concludes that no additional disciplinary action is required.

The AOC is directed to pay Philip R. Waystack, counsel appointed by the JCC, the sum of $74,935.69 for attorney's fees and expenses in the investigation, charging, and prosecutorial stages of the case between February 18, 2020, and February 19, 2021. Pursuant to Rule 40(13-A) and the terms of the Stipulation and Agreement, Introcaso is ordered to reimburse the AOC, in full, for those fees and expenses.

Bassett, Hantz Marconi, and Donovan, JJ., concurred.

So ordered.

Mr. Albrecht,

Your request for deposition transcripts from the New Hampshire Judicial Branch is beyond the scope of Part I, Article 8 of the New Hampshire Constitution and therefore, it is respectfully denied. See Petition of Union Leader Corp., 147 N.H. 603 (2002). The New Hampshire Judicial Branch's has a copy of deposition transcripts by virtue of its employees testifying under subpoena in the Judicial Conduct Committee matter. Any information provided by the Judicial Branch to the New Hampshire Department of Justice was in connection with a criminal investigation.

Ms. Dempsey,

Thank you for your timely response.

The State was billed for Examinations Under Oath (EUO's) and Depositions. In particular, these include:

- 7/22/20 - EUO of Sherry Bisson
- 8/26/20 - EUO of Julianne Lodes
- 1/11/21 - Deposition of Nancy Dabilis
- 1/13/21 - Deposition of Judge James Leary
- 1/18/21 - Deposition of Judge Mark Derby
- 1/18/21 - Deposition of Marital Master Bruce Dalpra
- 1/21/21 - Deposition of Sherry Bisson
- 1/21/21 - Deposition of Julianne Lodes
- 2/8/21 - Deposition of Judge Julie Introcaso

On 2/9/21, the State's Judicial Branch (JCC) sent deposition transcripts and exhibits to the State's Executive Branch (NH Attorney General's office). These are separate powers of the government. See Part I, Article 37 of the NH State Constitution. See also Petition of Judicial Conduct Comm. 151 N.H. 123 (2004).

Part I, Article 8 of the NH State Constitution requires that "the public's right of access to governmental proceedings and records shall not be unreasonably restricted."

I am an individual taxpayer eligible to vote in the State. See id.

Will the Judicial Branch also provide copies of these deposition transcripts and exhibits to me?

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Dana Albrecht

Port Huron, Michigan

96

(At 11:04 a.m., proceeding began)

97

THE COURT: Albrecht versus Albrecht. Counsel, your appearance, please.

99

MR. WEGMEYER: For the record, your Honor, Tim Wegmeyer appearing on behalf of its Albrecht on the pleadings, her name is--she actually goes by Minges.

102

THE COURT: I'm just going by the pleadings.

103

MR. WEGMEYER: But we're going to refer to her as Dr. Albrecht today.

105

THE COURT: When you address the Court it would be good if you stood. It would be good if you stood up when you address the Court.

108

MR. WEGMEYER: I'm sorry.

109

THE COURT: All right. So--you can have a seat now, Mr. Wegmeyer.

111

Are you Dana Albrecht?

112

MR. ALBRECHT: Yes, your Honor.

113

THE COURT: All right, it's your motion, go ahead.

114

MR. ALBRECHT: So, I'd just like the Court to enforce existing orders with the New Hampshire Family Court. Forgive me, I'm pro se if I speak a little slowly and I'm a little nervous. This has been an extensive long going battle between myself and Dr. Albrecht over here. And I'm really just looking to have parenting with my kids and I'm just looking to have a relationship with my kids. And, while we are working this out in New Hampshire, I'm very concerned that Dr. Albrecht essentially moved

122 out here without notice to me. I found out about it months later 123 when I found out my daughter was in an emergency room here. She 124 purchased the house here on October 15th. On November 6th she 125 testified under oath to the Court in California-excuse me, to the 126 Court in New Hampshire that she lived in California-

127 THE COURT: Mr. Albrecht, none of that concerns me.

128 MR. ALBRECHT: Okay. What would you like to know, sir, and 129 I'll do my best to address it.

130 THE COURT: It's your Motion, all I'm doing is having you
131 focus on what's relevant here.

132 MR. ALBRECHT: Okay. So, I think what's relevant-

133 THE COURT: Excuse me just a minute. You want to take your 134 hat off. Mr.-he's got to take his hat off, this is a courtroom.
135 Go ahead.

136 MR. ALBRECHT: I think what's relevant, your Honor, is we've 137 gone years without having court orders followed. And now that Dr.
138 Albrecht is here in Michigan I'd like to see those orders followed
139 when she's in Michigan. And, I'd like the assistance of the Court
140 to basically say that the Orders out of 9th Circuit will be follow
141 and they're registered here and that you have a copy-this Court
142 has a copy in their case there's anything the New Hampshire Court
143 needs assistance with from Michigan.

144 THE COURT: All right, you can have a seat. Mr. Wegmeyer,
145 your response.

146 MR. WEGMEYER: Thank you, your Honor. Your Honor, the only
147 thing at issue today is whether this Court is going to take 148 jurisdiction of this matter under the Uniform Child Custody Act.
149 Under the requirements for that is that there's an Order that's

150 enforceable in this State. And, I've attached as my exhibit B,
151 first of all, my exhibit A, and I don't know how much—I apologize
152 for the volume of information because I haven't been looking at it
153 —Mr. Albrecht served me with over a thousand pages of document, 154 discovery requests, et cetera. It's an ongoing thing that I have 155 a copy of the 9th Circuit index—pleadings index, if your Honor
156 would like to see it, it's unbelievable. There's four-hundred and 157 five entries; three hundred and ninety three pleadings filed, it's 158 just—and I'm afraid if this Court takes jurisdiction this is just 159 going to keep going and going.

160 But, back to the point, the last Order out of the New
161 Hampshire Court is attached as Exhibit B to my response. And it
162 indicates that any parenting time—there's going to be a temporary 163 parenting time in May, which took place, very short, with the 164 youngest daughter it was five or six hours and the oldest 165 daughter, who is seventeen, was five minutes. That's the first
166 parenting time since Christmas of 2019—

167 MS. ALBRECHT: '18.

168 MR. WEGMEYER: '18. It was very bad circumstances and the 169 children refused to see their father after that. So, five 170 minutes, with the oldest child, and a few hours only on my 171 client's assistance that you go and try to do it. She did it and 172 it was very tough. She's written another letter to the Court
173 which I would provide to you. Under the last—the temporary Order
174 out of New Hampshire, it says there's going to be some short—a
175 two and a half hour duration, that took place, that was bad.
176 Pending further order all such periods shall occur in New 177 Hampshire and I believe they were in a public place because the 178 girls don't want to be alone with him in private. Any further

179 such period shall be contingent upon the children's preferences
180 and their comfort levels. So, there's no mandatory parenting
181 time, it's up to the children whether or not they want to schedule
182 time with him they are free to do that. Petitioner's extended
183 parenting time in the Summer of 2021 is temporarily suspended.

184 That Order is going to be reviewed on August 6th. And I
185 spoke with New Hampshire counsel—I apologize, your Honor, I have 186 new teeth and I'm having a tough time—

187 THE COURT: I understand what you're saying.

188 MR. WEGMEYER: Anyway, August 6th the Court is going to 189 review that and see how the parenting time went and determine then 190 whether there's going to be any parenting time or if it's going to 191 be suspended for another period of time; whether it's going to be 192 terminated, et cetera. And, it's my position we shouldn't, right 193 at this point, there was a never—which is a requirement under the 194 Act, that's enforceable in this Court. Well, there's never been a 195 Court Order that provides for parenting time in the State of 196 Michigan. There's no support—

197 THE COURT: Under the UCCJEA, you don't have to have one in 198 Michigan. What Mr. Albrecht's asking for is for me to enforce
199 another State's order.

200 MR. WEGMEYER: I understand.

201 THE COURT: So, it doesn't have to be my order that I'm 202 enforcing.

203 MR. WEGMEYER: No, I understand. But I'm saying that there's 204 no—even if we took the New Hampshire Court Order—

205 THE COURT: I understand what you're saying. But I just

206 wanted it to be clear from what you just said that there's no
207 order in Michigan and he's asking for an Order in Michigan.

208 MR. WEGMEYER: No. I'm saying—I was saying there was no
209 Court Order out of New Hampshire that provides for any parenting
210 time in the State of Michigan.

211 THE COURT: That's not what you said.

212 MR. WEGMEYER: Well, I apologize.

213 THE COURT: It might have been what you meant but it's not 214 what you said.

215 MR. WEGMEYER: That's what I meant.

216 THE COURT: All right.

217 MR. WEGMEYER: There's nothing in New Hampshire that requires
218 any parenting time—it says it's going to take place in New 219 Hampshire. Mr. Albrecht filed simultaneously the same action in 220 California as he did here with no legal basis. There's no Nexis
221 to California whatsoever for either party. This is just a 222 continuation of abusing the judicial system, your Honor. His 223 Attorney filed in New Hampshire is nine banker boxes. We're just 224 into this a week and we've got a thousand pages. Your Honor, if 225 you take jurisdiction in this matter now, and you might end up, I 226 admit that if the Court in New Hampshire says parenting time is 227 going to happen—right now there is no parenting time to enforce.
228 And, Mr. Albrecht is the one paying all be it, very little, 50.00
229 a month, a man with a Harvard Education. He's the one that, if 230 there's any enforcement for child support, it would take place in 231 New Hampshire. But he is up to date on his 50.00 a month.
232 There's nothing that this Court needs to enforce.

233 And, I do have attached as Exhibit B(3) is the Notice of 234 Hearing for August 6th in New Hampshire.

235 I would direct your attention, your Honor, I know it's on the 236 merits, if this Court were to assume jurisdiction--but the letters
237 from the children are attached as exhibits, the Court should be 238 aware of their position. They are fourteen and seventeen. I know
239 them very casually and I've never actually spoke to them about 240 this file but Dr. Albrecht recently started, when she moved to 241 Michigan, started attending the Church that I belong too and I'm 242 one of the Church Council members et cetera. I haven't had a 243 whole lot of contact with the kids but the Youth Pastor has 244 indicated they are just wonderful intelligent-

245 THE COURT: Mr. Wegmeyer, that's really not relevant here to 246 these proceedings.

247 MR. WEGMEYER: I understand.

248 THE COURT: And even their feelings, at this point and time,
249 are not relevant to this issue because it would be relevant to the 250 Court in New Hampshire as it would affect the Judge's decision
251 there on what he ordered.

252 MR. WEGMEYER: Understood, your Honor.

253 THE COURT: But I can't change that order.

254 MR. WEGMEYER: I understand, your Honor.

255 THE COURT: So, if he ordered, for example, that there be 256 parenting time, the desire of the kids, I can't change that just 257 because they don't want to do it.

258 MR. WEGMEYER: I understand.

259 THE COURT: He would have to change--he or she would have to 260 change that in New Hampshire.

261 MR. WEGMEYER: Right.

262 THE COURT: So, anything else?

263 MR. WEGMEYER: Nothing, your Honor.

264 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Albrecht, you want to respond.

265 MR. ALBRECHT: A quick procedural thing. I understand Mr.

266 Wegmeyer's put in exhibits. I have some exhibits in response to 267 that.

268 THE COURT: No, you should have filed them if you wanted me
269 to see them. I'm not going to look at them now.

270 MR. ALBRECHT: I don't need you to look at them now, I'd just 271 like to have them filed. I only got them from him and I had to 272 fly out and I-

273 THE COURT: Mr. Albrecht, I'm not going to take them. I'm 274 not the keeper of the records.

275 MR. ALBRECHT: Okay. May I file them with the Court
276 downstairs?

277 THE COURT: For what purpose?

278 MR. ALBRECHT: They're responsive to Mr. Wegmeyer's exhibits,
279 which I only received—he promised them to me—

280 THE COURT: No. I'm not going to allow you to just to file
281 blank exhibits. You could have attached them to your motion right
282 from the beginning.

283 MR. ALBRECHT: I attached—

284 THE COURT: I'm telling you, I'm not going to take them—

285 MR. ALBRECHT: Okay.

286 THE COURT: --so that's it.

287 MR. ALBRECHT: Okay.

288 THE COURT: What did you have to say in response?

289 MR. ALBRECHT: Give me just a moment to recall his points,

290 sir. Primarily there are other aspects of the Order enforceable
291 here, such as access to records, access to school stuff and all
292 that so this isn't just about parenting.

293 THE COURT: That's it.

294 MR. ALBRECHT: If you have questions for me, sir, I'd be 295 happy to answer them.

296 THE COURT: You can have a seat. First of all, I want to 297 indicate that your Motion, Mr. Albrecht, not only asks me to 298 enforce the Order but asks me to require the Respondent to bring 299 the minor children to law enforcement for purpose of exchanges, to 300 —frankly, I think that's unconscionable to involve children with 301 the police. And, there is no way, even if I had the ability to 302 enforce this—even if the Court in New Hampshire had said, and had 303 not issued their temporary order, I wouldn't have granted that to 304 begin with. And I think it's unconscionable that'd you even ask
305 that your children be taken to the police station and have them
306 involved. I think that would be detrimental to the children,
307 period, to have to be gone—taken to a police station. And the law
308 is clear, now in as much as Ms.—it says Albrecht on the heading
309 here, is a resident of the State of Michigan, any Orders in the 310 State of New Hampshire is enforceable here.

311 The current Order, however, suspends parenting time. It did 312 not suspend the party's joint legal custody as far as having 313 access to records and things of that nature. So, to the extent
314 that Mr. Albrecht is asking that I enforce parenting time, I'm not 315 going to do it because you don't have any, number one, at least
316 temporarily. And, number two, if any parenting—the only Order
317 that I've been provided for indicates that the parenting time take

318 place in New Hampshire. So, it's not like you can just come to 319 Michigan and see the kids. So, as far as records go, at least
320 until you can show me that you've—for example, on the kids'
321 schooling, that you have been unable to access them yourself,
322 because it's not the respondent's responsibility to give them to 323 you. That part of the provision of the Order simply allows you
324 access to them from whoever has them. So—and I don't have 325 jurisdiction over the school in this case and neither does the 326 Court in New Hampshire. I don't have jurisdiction over medical 327 records, only hospitals or whoever is the provider has that. They 328 are not a party to this case. I can simply indicate and agree
329 that you have joint—what's referred to as joint legal custody and 330 have the ability to obtain that information. And, to that extent, 331 I would sign an Order that says that because that's what the 332 current Order in New Hampshire says, but that's all I'll do. I
333 will not direct the school, I will not direct the medical facility
334 to give them to you. If you have problems with them you're going 335 to have to deal with them directly.

336 MR. ALBRECHT: May I respond.

337 THE COURT: No, this is not a response, I'm issuing a ruling
338 here. So, your Motion here to the extent that you're asking me to 339 enforce a parenting time Order is denied because there is no
340 parenting time Order that I can enforce.

341 To the extent that you're asking to have access in Michigan
342 to the information that you're seeking, I'm not going to issue
343 that either because you already have an Order from New Hampshire
344 that says the same thing. And, to the—and as I indicated, I have 345 no jurisdiction over those agencies, they are not a party to this

346 case.

347 So, your Motion here, to this extent, I would simply 348 indicate that to the extent that I have an enforceable issue from 349 the State of New Hampshire—a Court in the State of New Hampshire, 350 I will enforce it in Michigan. But, so far I haven't been 351 presented with an enforceable issue. So, your Motion today is 352 denied.

353 That's it.

354 MR. WEGMEYER: Thank you, your Honor.
